

Bishop Craig S. High

Bishop Craig S. High is led by his faith and leads in Faith. Born and raised in Canton, Ohio, to William and Yvonne High, he graduated from Canton High School. He earned both a Bachelor's and Master's Degree in Theology and a Doctorate in Religious Education. He is a former youth leader and trainer in the Multi-County Juvenile Detention System of Ohio. He specialized in "The Positive Peer Culture" process, utilizing "the strength of those who have been reformed to reform others." He presides over the Atlantic Zone of Costa Rica, helping native pastors and churches spread the Gospel worldwide. Bishop High is married to Evangelist Teresa L. High, who works diligently alongside him in ministry. They have one daughter, Whitney.