

Mr. Lafayette A. Christian

Words to Live By: "Most importantly, I strive to be a man of God, and a dedicated family man, that is blessed so that I may be a blessing to others!"

Mr. Christian was born in Dayton, Ohio, and raised in San Antonio, Texas, and Los Angeles, California, before returning to Dayton in 1985. He attended Jefferson Township High School and pursued a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Pre-Law, with a minor in African American Studies from Wright State University in 1992. He will be conferred a Master of Business Administration from The University of Phoenix in the Spring of 2025.

He currently works for the Montgomery County Common Pleas Court in the Kushinda (Swahili meaning -to defeat, to overcome, to conquer) Court program. He is married to his wife, Lisa. They have three children and six grandchildren.
